

RIVERSIDE COMMUNITY CLUB

June 3, 2008

President Jody Wall called the meeting to order at 7:54 pm. He then led the members in the flag salute.

There were a5 adult members, 3 guests and 2 children present.

Jan Weakley read the treasurer's report for Kathy Hammond. The balance is $1820.90.

OLD BUSINESS: Fund raising ideas are still being investigated. Jan Weakley gave a presentation on revenues raised over the years as they related to various types of activities, cookbooks were the most successful. Jody Wall mentioned that he has been given the contact info for Oso Lumber, which is a corporation, and therefore makes donation decisions from the main office.

Cecil Andrews said the new website is now up and running. Site address is www.riversidecommunityclub.org. (corrected to read center). It's still in template format, but take a look and offer ideas and suggestions.

The new tablecloths will be coming soon according to Jan Weakley.

Summer cleanup was discussed, but not scheduled.

Any discussion of the sale of Riverside Community Center was declared "off the table".

Bake sale ideas were discussed.

NEW BUSINESS: A panel of new officers were elected. They are as follows:

President -	Diane Halverson
Vice President -	Jan Weakley
Secretary -	Sheila Wall
Treasurer -	Cecil Andrews
Outside Chairman -	Dick Weakley
Inside Chairman -	Craig Cahoon (one remaining year on existing term)

Exiting President Jody Wall was thanked and incoming President Diane Halverson took over the meeting.

After general discussion about upcoming By-laws changes, it was decided that there should be one more Officer's Meeting to finalize the language, with hopes to bring it to membership for voting at July meeting.

Dues: The annual membership fees are now due at the current rate of $15.00/yr., per family.

MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS: June's birthdays were announced. July hosting was assigned to the Weakley's. Diane Halverson discussed her interest in seeing if RCC can be added to the Historical Register and intends to pursue this with membership's permission and awareness. Chris Zegstroo mentioned that Farmer's Markets are now open in downtown (correct to read Arlington) on Saturday between 9 am and 2 pm and by the Country Charm Dairy on Sunday from 11 am to 4 pm. Sheila noted that the Library Summer Reading Program begins next week. Ursula Petralia discussed a potential community concern that a 7 track motocross is planned 8 miles north on the Mountain Loop Hwy. There is a meeting June 12th at 6:30 at Alf's to discuss. There is also a letter to the Seattle Times from the Mt. Loop Conservancy Group about the environmental impact it may pose.

GOOD OF THE ORDER: Becky Wall and Mike (corrected to read Scherzinger) introduced the membership to their new son Jacobe David and a baby shower party followed.

Kathy Hammond is on her second round of chemotherapy and is tired but doing well.

Meeting adjourned at 8:50 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Dawn Cahoon
Secretary
