

RIVERSIDE COMMUNITY CLUB

July 1, 2008

President Diane Halverson called the meeting to order at 7:45 p.m. She then led the members in the flag salute.

There were 13 adults and 1 child present.

The minutes were read and approved as corrected.

Cecil Andrews gave the treasurer's report. The balance is $1991.93.

OLD BUSINESS: Craig Cahoon read proposed by-law changes. Discussion followed. President Diane Halverson moved to accept proposed by-laws changes for vote at next scheduled business meeting. A copy of proposed changes will be sent via e-mail to all members.

Thank you to the Weakley's for hosting. Thanks to Dick for mowing.

There was discussion about raising funds to repair chimney and roof. Diane Halverson donated 3 glass plates. She asked for $25.00 each with proceeds to go to the RCC treasury. All 3 were purchased.

Diane announced that they would be out of town for the August business meeting so could not host at their home. Several other members will also be unable to come to the August meeting. Pat Ballard moved that we skip the August meeting. Jan Weakley seconded. Motion passed. By-law changes will be voted on at September meeting.

Lowell reported on conversation with Mike Oberg. Mike recommends taking the chimney down by hand for structure stability and safety. Mike also suggested a metal roof for the building. Sheila will ask Jody if he talked to Oso Lumber. There was discussion about the repairs and having a work party. Cecil Andrews made a motion to schedule a work party for Saturday, July 12 at 9 am. Lowell Halverson seconded. Motion was approved to have work party unless raining. Dawn Cahoon made a motion to authorize expenditure to repair chimney. Cecil seconded. Motion approved. Lowell has a pump for the well.

NEW BUSINESS: Cecil as treasurer asked if we could move the RCC funds to a local bank. Discussion followed. Lowell made a motion to have Cecil move account. Cecil will talk to Gene Simpson, past treasurer, about signature card. Cecil Andrews and Diane Halverson will be signatories on new account.

Dawn suggested meeting minutes be sent via e-mail to people who haven't recently attended meetings.

Jan told us about visitors they had – Clyde and Merle Neavile, past members.

MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS:

July birthdays – Chris Zegstroo and Ed Edminster.

Hosting for September – Cahoon's.

GOOD OF THE ORDER: Diane told story about past users of building, a church group and a horse club. Dick told about Saturday night dances.

Meeting adjourned at 8:48 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Sheila Wall
